

Wouldn't it help your business if self-insurance service providers contacted you every time you needed their help?

Now at selfinsurancemarket.com they can!

Find over 40 types of Service Provider who specialize in self-insurance today

Creating self-insurance programs in today's world often requires the support of several service providers. Whether they are brokers, captive managers, third party administrators, excess insurers or any other type of self-insurance provider, each one often needs to be sourced separately for each individual risk or program.

selfinsurancemarket.com is a service that allows you to send business enquiries to selected types of service providers all at the same time.

If you are looking for a specialist service provider and want to save time and money by not sending out lengthy submissions to companies that may or may not be able to help you, then selfinsurancemarket.com can help you find the right partner.

Or if you just want to make sure that you get the best deal for yourself or your client, then selfinsurancemarket.com is here to help.

A Simple Way to Canvas the Self-Insurance Market

You can access the service at any time by visiting selfinsurancemarket.com. Simply select a category of service provider as well as the, country, state or domicile that you require the service to be provided in. Once you have entered this information, you will be shown a list of service providers meeting those criteria.

You can then select which of those service providers you wish to send your enquiry to, so you can avoid any that you do not wish to approach or that you have already spoken to.

Then all you need to do is simply enter the contact details of your requirement. You can either send a short enquiry or you can send a detailed request as you prefer.

Your enquiry will be sent to the service providers that you have selected who will respond to you directly if they can help.

"I have 50% placed through the London Market but need support for the balance."

Frequently Asked Questions

What is selfinsurancemarket.com?

selfinsurancemarket.com is an on-line service provider search service for the self-insurance market. It enables you to send self-insurance business enquiries directly to groups of service providers in one easy submission.

What are the benefits of using selfinsurancemarket.com?

Instead of contacting companies individually, selfinsurancemarket.com allows you to canvas specialist companies at the same time, saving you time and allowing you to provide a faster service to you or your customers.

What if I don't want to contact certain service providers on the site?

The site allows you to select only the service providers that you wish to approach.

I don't always want to tell service providers who my client is.

If you are acting as an agent for someone else, there is no obligation to state who you are acting for.

How much does it cost to use?

The service is free to use for companies seeking self-insurance for their own insurance programs. Employees of professional service providers can use the service with unlimited usage if their employer is a member of the site.

I'm not sure what type of service provider I require.
